

GDPR Privacy Statement

Introduction

Taddy's Barn is committed to being transparent about how it collects and uses personal data, and to meeting its data protection obligations. This policy sets out the organisation's commitment to data protection, and individual rights and obligations in relation to personal data.

Personal data is any information that relates to a natural person who can be identified from that information.

Processing is any use that is made of data, including collecting, storing, amending, disclosing or destroying it.

Special categories of personal data means information about an individual's racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religious or philosophical beliefs, trade union membership, health, sex life or sexual orientation and biometric data.

Criminal records data means information about an individual's criminal convictions and offences, and information relating to criminal allegations and proceedings.

The only personal data we hold is under 'consent' with the GDPR Regulations. The other information listed is simply a reference of the other terms, for your information.

Who we are?
